Arizona Department of Public Safety to Conduct Saturation Patrols near the site of this weekend's Country Thunder USA concert in Florence.

On Friday April 18th and Saturday April 19th Arizona Department of Public Safety Officers will join with Pinal County Sheriff's Deputies in a strong police presence to deter impaired drivers during the two day Country Thunder USA concert in Florence.

The DPS DUI Enforcement Detail will be assisting local law enforcement on the highways and roadways leading into the concert looking for impaired drivers. Upwards of 100,000 people are expected to attend this weekend.

The areas being patrolled will include State Route 79 from Florence Junction/US 60 to the community of Florence.
